OEM vs. MOOG w/wo fittings - F150online ForumsSep 11, 2015 — Everything else is fine! So, if I got 192,000 miles on the OEM gear, why shoul I think MOOG will get me the same just because I can grease them!Moog vs. NAPA vs. OEM| Grassroots Motorsports forum |MOOG replacements are better, plus come with grease fittings. Best way to decide is research the forums and see what kind of luck others are having. Sometimes OEM is best, sometimes it ain't. That's fair, we can amend the rule to "OEM is usually best, unless the vehicle is Italian."
